

The purpose of the walks is primarily to strengthen relations and to develop the sense of identity of the citizens of the region and the sense of belonging to a cross-border society.

Find out more at: <https://visitszczecin.eu/pl/kultura/125-transgraniczne-spacery-miejskie-plde>

4.4.3. Usage of cultural heritage for new creativity

4.4.3.1 Old becomes new; Bordeaux; Dubrovnik; Dublin; San Sebastian

Do better with less; Bordeaux: Such is the essence of the Darwin Ecosystem, a collective geared towards a green economy, now one of the most visited sites in Bordeaux. This former military barracks is home to an urban farm, the largest organic restaurant in France, plus its organic delicatessen, all showing a way of “consuming differently”. It’s a place of diversity and innovation where you can find skateparks, an open-air gallery for graffiti artists, as well as co-working spaces and entrepreneurs working in the green economy. The place is also committed to welcoming refugees and hosts a second-hand boutique.

Find out more at: <https://www.bordeaux-tourism.co.uk/sites-monuments/darwin-alternative-and-inspiring-urban-ecosystem>

© Sara Soullignac