IVIEWPOINT

iViewPoint is a technological product to promote destinations through showcasing their viewpoints. A technological panoramic table gives visitors access to exclusive content about the most noteworthy cultural heritage from their mobile phones (website, QR or NFC) through rich text and multimedia content, and encourages them to share the experience on social media.

The company locates and describes the cultural resources that can be seen from each viewpoint, creating rich content in various languages and formats (photos, 360º videos, audio, texts, drone footage, etc.).
